BEST ISO CERTIFICATION BODY

ABOUT LMS

LMS Assessments Limited is an Independent, Impartial Certification Body for numerous ISO standards that take pride in assisting your certification needs for Audits, Training, Inspection, and Regulatory Compliance. We are a highly qualified audit team that produces consistent reports in a timely manner. LMS Assessments Limited's strategic goal is to promote business process improvements and acceptability on a national and international level using a scientific approach that has global acceptance.

Why should you choose us?

When you choose LMS Assessments Limited, you're getting more than just a certifier with a stellar international reputation, since our Senior Lead Auditors have extensive experience in auditing, primarily in R&D and/or manufacturing. With LMS Assessments Limited, your organization can adapt their certification needs, seek independent certification, or certify their integrated management system.

Our core values

- ◆ Customer Centric: We understand our clients' evolving demands and continually provide value by providing exceptional service that fosters their trust, loyalty, and respect.
- ◆ We promote diversity and strive to foster a trusting, open, and inclusive atmosphere while acknowledging the contributions of all employees.
- ◆ Every level of interaction: We inspire trust by speaking what we mean, matching our actions to our words, and accepting responsibility for our actions.
- ◆ Continual development: By embracing each organization's individuality, we utilize the power of relationships and collaboration to provide great service, capabilities, and accessible access to our clients wherever they do business.
- ◆ Relationships that benefit both parties: attracting, developing, and retaining the greatest talent for our company, displaying a "can-do" attitude, and building a collaborative and mutually supportive team atmosphere.

OUR PURPOSE

Is to assist customers
in delivering products
that the rest of the world can rely on.

The business world is continuously changing, and with it comes a slew of ever-changing organizational difficulties. Every firm can do better consistently, consistently, and sustainably, and teams frequently begin out with the finest intentions to identify acceptable ways to move forward. The primary motivator for any organization is to achieve market leadership, which helps streamline and improve service standards to prospective clients all over the world.

What distinguishes ourselves from others—

Our combined global strength at LMS Assessments Limited is built on the expertise, skills, and sheer enthusiasm of our teachers, client managers, and senior business leaders. And they've all figured out how to make brilliance a habit. Our people not only understand the issues that your company faces, but they also know where greatness may be achieved and communicated to your staff.

Our Accreditation

EGAC (Egyptian Accreditation Council)

LMS Assessments is approved by the Egyptian Accreditation Council (EGAC) for Management System Certifications. Businesses and organizations can benefit from auditing services provided by LMS.

About EGAC

The Egyptian Accreditation Council was Established by Presidential Decree No. 312 for Year 1996 to Become the Only National Body Competent in the Arab Republic of Egypt to Evaluate/Assess and Accredite Conformity Assessment Bodies, which are (Testing Laboratories/ Calibration Laboratories / Inspection Bodies / Certification Bodies of Management Systems / Medical Testing Laboratories / Product Certification Bodies/ Technical Proficiency Testing Service Providers /Proficiency Testing Bodies/ Personal Certification Bodies/ Halal Certification Bodies/ Forensic Laboratories /Bio banks Laboratories).

EGAC is an MLA Signatory of the International Accreditation Forum. The International Accreditation Forum (IAF) is a global organization that brings together Conformity Assessment Accreditation Bodies and others interested in management systems, products, services, and personnel certification.

Inspection /Third Party Inspection-

The primary goal of Inspection/Third Party Inspection is to offer information regarding compliance with regulations, standards, or specifications that account for quality, quantity, safety, fitness for use, and ongoing safety compliance in operation. Because any end user/owner seeks safety, dependability, and integrity, any Inspection/Third Party Inspection process would adhere to a general criterion of examination of materials, products, installations, plant, processes, work procedures, or services, and determination of their conformity with requirements, with subsequent reporting of the results of these activities to clients. By having your business services and systems inspected, you give your firm the opportunity to expressly demonstrate its duty for ensuring that its facilities, equipment, products, and services conform to quality, health and safety, environmental and social responsibility imperatives.
